FIRST CIRCUS OF THE SEASON STRIKES CITY

Wheeler Bros. circus parade, true to advanced promises, traversed the principal downtown business streets Monday morning, the parade being the usual advance guard of the afternoon and evening shows. Well groomed horses, frisky after the Sunday "lay over" in South Bend, featured the procession.

Good attendance at the afternoon performance on Oliver field was reported. Several innovations, such as a polo game, preparedness spectacle, the war of nations, marked the show, aside from the usual routine of the three-ring circus.

Judged by the open cages in the parade, the menagerie carried by Wheeler Bros. is somewhat smaller than the wild animals which form a big portion of the larger circuses.

SALVATION ARMY MUST RAISE $1,500 IN YEAR

According to Capt. Nehemiah Brookes of the Salvation army, the local army workers need $1,500 more to carry on the year's work. The amount received from the Federation for Social Service was $1,473.29 and an additional $100 was received in collections and donations.

Capt. Brookes said Monday morning that at least $3,000 would be needed to carry on the work this year. He made a report at a meeting of the Ministerial association at the Y. M. C. A. several weeks ago, showing that a deficit of $1,500 existed.

MEMBER OF DAYTON COMMISSION TO SPEAK

J. M. Switzer of Dayton, who will talk on the Dayton plan of city government at the Elks' temple Wednesday night, is a member of the Dayton city commission. Members of the commission are elected by the people on non-partisan platforms and they in turn name a manager to handle the government of the city.

The commission working in conjunction with the city head, Mr. Switzer will explain the difference between the commission form of municipal government and the commission manager form. The latter system is in use in Dayton.

GEORGE FISHER WILL SPEAK AT MISSION

George Fisher, one time secretary of the Y. M. C. A. of this city, and now president of the Gospel Missionary union of Kansas City, Mo., will speak at the Rescue Mission, 436 E. Lasalle av., Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock.

Mr. Fisher is superintendent of a missionary school in Kansas City and has charge of missions in Morocco, S. A., and among the North American Indians. He is editor and publisher of a missionary paper.

Nemo for VACATION

"WONDERLIFT"
—is the corset for vacation.
WHY? Because:
1. It gives you perfect fashion-lines and holds its shape all summer.
2. It stays in place, no matter what you do; won't "ride up," and can't "dig in."
3. It fulfills—protects from physical dangers or strenuous activities. Dance, golf, etc., climb as hard as you wish, your Wonderlift insures you against damage.

No. 556 is for slender to medium figures of average height. Fine mercerized batiste; sizes 20 to 30—$5.00.

Other Wonderlift models for every type (sizes range from 18 to 44)—$5 to $10.
